Yellow warning
Wind

Between 04:00 Wed 22 Mar 2023 and
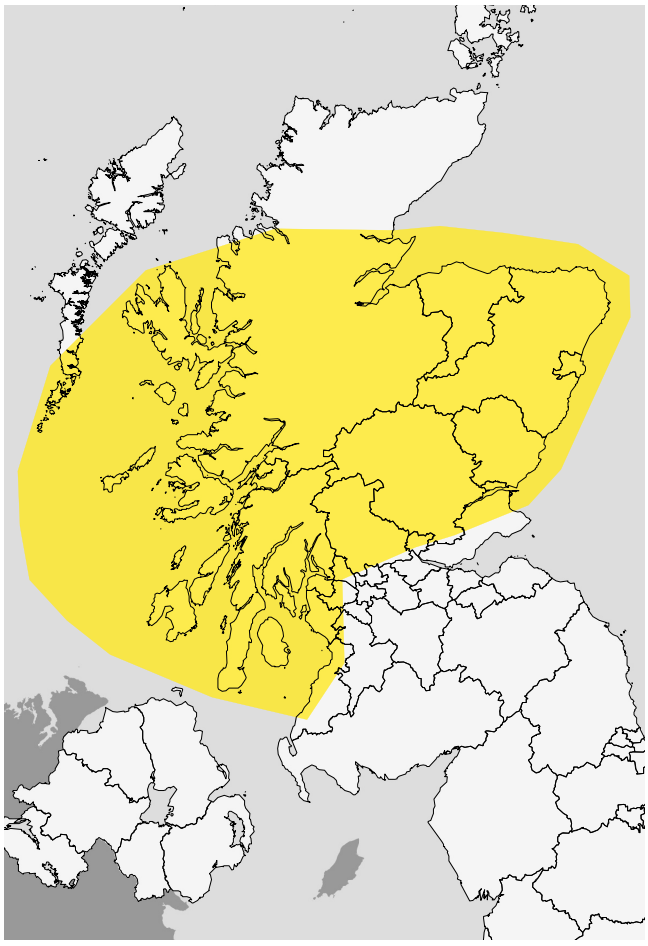
13:00 Wed 22 Mar 2023



Spell of very strong winds may cause some disruption to travel.

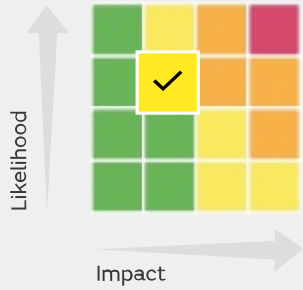
What to expect

- Some delays to road, rail, air and ferry transport are likely
- Probably some bus and train services affected, with some journeys taking longer
- Delays for high-sided vehicles on exposed routes and bridges likely
- Some short term loss of power and other services is possible
- It's likely that some coastal routes, sea fronts and coastal communities will be affected by spray and/or large waves

Further details

A band of squally showers will move east with a spell of very strong west to southwesterly winds following through Wednesday morning.

Gusts of 50-60 mph are likely widely and 65 mph in exposed locations, with a chance of gusts reaching 75 mph in parts of western Scotland, which may combine with the morning high tide to cause some spray and large waves along some western coasts.



✓ Medium likelihood of low impacts
